10. What programming or services for LGBTQ youth would you like to see in Tulsa?
1.	I'm not in Tulsa but more services in Oklahoma in general would be good.
2.	social events job training and peer counseling
3.	i don't live in Tulsa so it's hard for me to get to the group meets on Thursday. It would help if they had one of those on the weekend, maybe before the shows on Saturday.
4.	I don't really know.. I'd like to see homosexual awareness/education taught in elementary schools. Fat chance, huh?
5.	OYP needs to do a walk for Money or a run as a bennefit
6.	more positive support of the bi community
7.	Coming out groups, and peer counseling.
8.	I would like to see intellectual promotion for LGBTQ youth.
9.	Maybe one where actual LGBT youth can go to hang out. Most of our youth programs are full of straight guys trying to "score" a bi girl. It would be nice to be in an area with mostly LGBT youth. I'm not saying I hate straight youth, I just dislike when they come to the LGBT youth centers just to get a girl
10.	I think it would be easier for teens to talk to other teens around the same age about dealing with things that affect them rather than someone older.
11.	i dont know at this time.
12.	I would like to see more LGBTQ information through schools and centers, for a better understanding for our peers, teachers, and counselors.
13.	more places for under age kids to get help of coming out
14.	oyp
15.	youth club like things for gay bi and straight
16.	I would like to see an area where everyone can hang out and be themselves!
17.	more places to hang out with friends!!!
18.	gay churches, more gay stores
19.	More services that help struggling LGBTQ youth and make them easily accessible.
20.	safe houses/shelters
21.	more
22.	all the above
23.	some for kids that r 12 and 13. most places to go like OYP r 14 above. which is very upsetting
24.	I'm out and loud and pretty grounded, so persoanly many of the items woudln't do much for me. But I think ALL of them are good ideas for any Gay Community in any city. I think you guys are doing a great job in trying to create the stuff you've listed above. I just wish I had money to give you so you could do more.
25.	Just a larger organization - like an expansion of the Youth Services programme.
26.	I would say most as many as pollisble
27.	more places to go and a big brothers and sisters but for lgbtq
28.	idk
29.	Just to see that everyone understands things, and they get along, and the community excepts people for who they are.
30.	Cultural / Historical/Educational LGBTQ Events,Community Outreach (activities to increase awareness of LGBTQ issues), Coming Out Group, Advocacy for LGBTQ issues

31.	I am not sure; just a place that would be fun to hang out. That has video games, low movement sports, and places just to sit and chill. Not a place that is really only for dancing.
32.	na
33.	more places like OYP!
34.	Counseling, Suicide Hotline, and Pier Mediation.
35.	More of anything at all. I heard about this group through someone and before that, i had no clue it existed.
36.	...I don't know much about the LGBTQ groups, but i would love to help out and/or participate.
37.	oyp
38.	not sure
39.	i want to see something like otp where we can just hang out. but like all the time. i feel like there isn't really a place that i can just go hang out with people like me. unless i want to go to oyp. and somedays i just don't feel like that. i also would hope that there could be more things to do for the glbqt youth of tulsa.
40.	i am not sure of any programs.
41.	i dont know
42.	Not sure.
43.	More programs in middle schools to help kids come out.
44.	more organized protest and different building understanding yourself seminars
45.	councling for teenage kids to help deal with parent problems.
46.	A rpogram to help younger teens about lgbtq and to help the world under stand more about us in the world that we live in today. I just want there to be a place where other teens have a more safe place and nice place for runways teens that are gay.
47.	everything
48.	Gay Rights Awarness
49.	Gay Rights Awareness
50.	idk
51.	idk
52.	I don't know
53.	more places like OYP to help teens not be affraid to be who they want to be.
54.	hmkghi
55.	A program to make friends
56.	In tulsa im not sure what the programs name is but its a program that gives teens a safe place to come hang out keep them off the streets and away from drugs and thoughts of suicide.
57.	drag queens and drag kings
58.	openarms youth project
59.	More outreach and acceptability
60.	Seems like you have got it all.
61.	Camping/outdoors
62.	Job Placement
63.	everything...
64.	more open clubs and programs with cookouts and pertys with reading on the subjects.

65.	More social events and get togethers. I would like to experience more of the community in Tulsa.
66.	Oyp and club majestic there the best of all manly oyp
67.	idk
68.	I dunno.
69.	More outreach centers or how to voice opinion to gay ledgislatures, councilors, lawyers, ect. ways to access this info would be very familiar

12. What obstacles/challenges do you face or what prevents you from accessing LGBTQ resources or support?
1.	The lack of resources in Southern rural Oklahoma really hinders my ability to get the help I need a lot of the time.
2.	Parents
3.	transportation
4.	There is not much to offer for glbtq youth in Muskogee and that is where I live. I can't always get to Tulsa, so the only support i really have is from my parents and I thank God every day that I at least get support from my parents.
5.	I thought I was too old (I'm 20).. Also, I'm very intimidated by what I'll find at OYP. I don't have any friends to go with..
6.	My parents, well my sisters I live with my sisters who treat me like Im the worst acting person alive. They think Im going to do all the bad choices in life so they dont give me a chance. Im not allowed to drive to oyp cause they dont want me going. my parents dont know about me, but they live in ohio right now, and my dad lives in pawnee.
7.	nothing.
8.	I'm not able to tell my grandfather that I'm bisexual, he's a homophobic, and my cousin is also gay, and has banished him from our home.
9.	Transportation.
10.	I most just seem weird and it seems like you have to know someone to fit in.
11.	One obstacle I have faced is coming out, but thats pretty much I have faced.
12.	my parents accepting that i am gay
13.	well.... some people find it hard to come out and say they are gay etc... i think oyp really helps u come out to ur true self
14.	my parents dont believe me when i came out to them. they think it is a phase or something to shock them
15.	none
16.	i dont know
17.	judgement, parents not accepting me...
18.	I don't know of many of them.
19.	nothing
20.	gas prices, live on outskirts of town
21.	no obsticle for me
22.	i don't know a lot about them.
23.	im scared poeple will treat me like a desise
24.	I hear from younger people they know nothing about OYP. I wish there was a creative way we could let more know about the many activities of OYP. Are there any radio stations or newspapers that would let you guys advertise? I know that stuff is really expensive, but I think it would pay off in the long run.

41.	Some of the sopport that I get here kinda helps me at home but alot of my support that I get is from my family and friends. I have had alot of jobs turn me down because I am a lesbain and they do not like that but people do not understand that just because some likes the same sex they are not bad people and they need to understand that. I still do have some problems with my real dad but he has to get over that sooner or later. I just look at it as it my life and you like me or not. and I LOVE ME
